DECLARED A DRAW

RESULT OF LAST NIGHT'S TEN-ROUND BOXING MATCH.

Would Have Been Much More Satisfactory Had the Bout Been Longer, Enabling the Men to Show Their Real Qualities—Both Are Clever, But the Conditions Were Not Favorable for a Go Satisfying to the Spectators.

Pendleton prize ring enthusiasts desire someone to win, when they see a bout. They may not particularly thirst for gore or care to see a few necks unjointed, but the small crowd that witnessed the 10-round draw between Perry Queenan and Barney Mullen last night goes to show that the great majority that remained away evidently suspected something. Queenan and Mullen both fought well and mixed things pretty lively on several occasions, but even with that there were grumblings when neither man secured the decision.

Both fighters are clever men, and their past records show long lists of good men that they have gone against with credit to themselves. Twice before had they met and fought draws before they met at the Fraser last night. Mullen has a longer reach than Queenan, and is withal a more scientific boxer, but Queenan has a bulldog tenacity that allows him to take punishment unflinchingly. But 10 rounds is too short a time for men like Mullen to Queenan to fight. There is too much steam in them to be worn away in 30 minutes of fighting. The fighters had scalp wounds when the bout was ended, caused by Mullen slipping and the two men bumping to-

OIL FOR THE BODY

You can't lose an atom without feeling it. The body is like an engine, a watch, a machine; must be kept in good order to run right.

That's the reason Scott's Emulsion is so successful in all wasting diseases. It feeds, nourishes and strengthens when ordinary food won't.

Doctors say Scott's Emulsion is the best nourishment for those who are not as well as they should be—young or old.

SOCIETY EVENTS

The most pretentious social event of the past week was the dancina party given by the Revelers on Thursday evening at Music Hall, which was tastefully decorated with Christmas greens and Indian robes. On the south side of the hall cozy corners were artistically arranged. The party was the largest yet given by the club, there being about 100 couples present who participated in the dances. A number of pretty gowns were worn by the ladies in attendance. Punch was served throughout the evening.

Christmas Dinner Party.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Vaughan entertained at 7 o'clock dinner on Christmas day at Hotel Pendleton. The table was tastefully decorated with potted plants and red-hooded candles. A seven-course dinner was served. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warner and son, Harold, Mr. Price Florence and daughters, Edna and Lavelle.

Afternoon Card Party.

Mrs. E. P. Marshall entertained in an informal but pleasant manner, a number of friends on Tuesday afternoon. "Five hundred" was played, after which a buffet luncheon was served. The invited guests were Mesdames W. E. Brock, Frank Clopton, Leon Cohen, Fred Judd, C. E. Roosevelt, Charles Hamilton, J. F. Robinson, Harry Johnson, Frank Frazier, J. Ross Dickson, Thomas C. Warner, John Vert, Thomas Halley, G. A. Hartman, Sr., Lina Sturgis, Northouse Berkeley, Minnie Stillman, and Mrs. Thomas Purdy, of Walla Walla.

Christmas Party.

Mrs. Thomas C. Warner was hostess on Monday afternoon to a number of friends at a Christmas party. The house was decorated in holiday greens and from the arch decoration hung pendant the score cards—16 red bells with a spray of holly tied to each. After the guests had arrived each took the score card nearest within reach. "Five hundred" was played and for every progression made a tiny bell was given to hang from the score card. The prizes, which were appropriate for the occasion, were won by Mrs. C. J. Smith for greatest number of progressions, and Mrs. Charles Berkeley for having the least. After the game refreshments were served. The other invited guests were Mesdames F. W. Vincent, E. A. Vaughan, F. W. Furnish, Lee Held, Thomas Ayres, C. J. Ferguson, W. L. Dick, Fred Shoemaker, Minnie Stillman and Misses Stella Alexander, Ida and Harriet Thompson and Bessie Switzer.

Pleasant Home Party.

A party was given in honor of Mae and Fordie Taylor, at their home in the country, eight miles northeast of here, Tuesday evening, December 27. Refreshments were served and all had an enjoyable time, there being present in all, 56, of which 40 were from town. Those present were: George Hill, Maggie Mumm, Minnie Longmire, Clail Elgin, Iva Hill, Gertrude Jordan, Mina Smith, Louise Longmire, Fred Anderson, John Owens, Javina Stanfield, Charlie Owens, Clyde Whittemore, Bessie McPherson, Mable Allen, Walter Cresswell, Clifford Turner, John Mumm, Bryan Smith, Herbert Thompson, Max Hopper, Harry Berry, Milton, Ralph Tachella, William McDaniel, Mr. Van Oredall, Ralph Shaw, Ethel Shafer, Daisy McPherson, Winnie Boylen, Margaret Williams, Edna Thompson, Ben Cresswell, Ethel Temple, Jim Harvey, Frank Murray of Walla Walla, Carl Engdahl, Ben Owens, Alex Shafer, Walter Smith, Sybil McDaniel, John Owens, Emma Smith, Edgar Smith, Ralph Shaffer, Lillian Stanfield, Edna Storie, Dave Hill, Mary Williams, Bertha Gross, Grace Owens, Maud Williams and Jim Gilliam.

A Crokinole Party.

Mrs. C. F. Cook gave a progressive crokinole party Thursday evening at her home, 708 Aura street, in honor of her niece, Miss Weltha Newman, of Walla Walla. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edminsten, the Misses Maud Sheek, Flora Sheek, Bessie Bracking, Gladys Bracking, Hazel Berkeley, Fay Boishy, Clara Thompson, Hazel Cook, Weltha Newman, Goldie Cook, Mrs. G. W. Cook, Bertha Bowers, Delta Bowers, Melvin Hopkins, Alvin Edminsten, Jesse Edminsten, Jeff Bowers, Gale Sturdivant, Willie Penland, Albert Cook, Walter Porter, David Dunn.

The evening was spent in playing games until 11 o'clock, when a dainty luncheon was served. The hostess was assisted by Miss Gladys Bracking and Miss Weltha Newman in serving refreshments.

Wedding Anniversary.

A pleasant party was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller last evening, on the 24th anniversary of their wedding. A number of friends were present and progressive flinch, and other games were enjoyed, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamblin, Mrs. Marston and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Haw, Mr. and Mrs. John Stockman and Prof. and Mrs. W. Haw.

A Heart Party.

Mrs. F. W. Vincent entertained last evening in honor of her son, Frederick Vincent, who is home from the State University of Washington for the holidays. The evening was spent in playing progressive hearts. Novel heart-shaped scores were made for the occasion, cut so as to admit arrows given with every progression. On the arrows given the young gentlemen was written the name of one of the ladies present, and a gentleman's name on the arrows given the ladies. At the close of the game the ladies invited the gentlemen to supper whose name appeared the greatest number of times on her arrows, and the gentleman escorted the young lady to her home, whose name appeared the greatest number of times on his tallies. This novel innovation caused much merriment among the guests. Prizes were won by Miss Fanchon Borie and Mr. Ben Burroughs. Both prizes were in keeping with the heart idea. Chafing dish refreshments were served in the dining room. Mrs. Vincent was assisted by Mrs. Lee Held.

The invited guests were Misses Fanchon Borie, Edna Thompson, Rita Howland, Edith Epple, Bertha Alexander, Jessie Hartman and Evelyn Clarke; and Messrs. Royal Alexander, Fred Hartman, Mark Moorhouse, Earl Borie, Dale Slusher, Ben Burroughs and Berkeley Halley.

Holiday Dinner Party.

A pretty holiday dinner party will be given this evening by Miss Bertha Alexander to a party of friends. The table decorations will be in red, green and white. The invited guests are: Misses Ethel Hayes, Fanchon Borie, Constance Despain, Ahma Hallock, Rita Howland, Edith Epple, Edna Thompson and Jessie Hartman.
